

Unique as Pete: How Autism Does Not Mean Different

BIOGRAPHIES

Meagan Church, Author

Meagan makes her home in South Bend, Ind., with her husband, son, dog and two cats. She works as a freelance writer with her work having appeared in magazines, literary journals, newspapers, websites, newsletters and more, and her dramas having been performed for crowds of about 6000. Meagan spent nearly four years as editor of the literary journal Peeks & Valleys before turning it over to a new editor so she could begin a family. When not working, she can be found running 5Ks with her husband, chasing her toddler or just enjoying the outdoors.

Tom Sours, Illustrator

Tom Sours dedicates himself to making the world a better place by using the talents God gave him. Those talents allow him to be a furniture designer, musician, artist, mechanic, carpenter, handyman, and so much more. When not working, he enjoys spending time with his wife and family.

Tom credits his abilities and blessings to the good and faithful God, Who will not fail us when we believe in Him. He was glad to be a part of Unique as Pete and hopes you find this book to be a useful resource.

Dana Hooton, Illustrator

Dana is passionate about community. She launched the Creative Underground with the purpose of helping others through using the creative arts. Dana is a graphic designer who has worked in all forms of media for clients in many diverse industries around the world. She, her husband and two beautiful daughters patiently await the arrival of daughter number three, due out the same time as this book. They all enjoy playing piano, competing in a number of video games and attending a church who also shares a true heart for community.
